

FREE ADMISSION

The architectural ensemble of Vilnius University is visited free of charge by:

- Individual visitors;
- Leaders of organized groups of visitors, guides accompanying groups around the ensemble;
- Employees of museums of the Republic of Lithuania;
- Members of the International Council of Museums (ICOM);
- Children under 7 years;
- Visitors with disabilities;
- All groups of students of Lithuanian higher education institutions and students of Lithuanian schools.

The bell tower of St. John's Church is visited free of charge by:

- Leaders of tourist groups, guides accompanying groups to the bell tower;
- Vilnius University employees;
- Employees of museums of the Republic of Lithuania;
- Members of the International Council of Museums (ICOM);
- Children under 7 years;
- Visitors with disabilities.

Adam Mickiewicz Museum is visited free of charge by:

- Leaders of tourist groups, guides accompanying groups to the museum;
- Vilnius University employees;
- Employees of museums of the Republic of Lithuania;
- Members of the International Council of Museums (ICOM);
- Children under 7 years;
- Visitors with disabilities.

(It is necessary to submit a document confirming the right of the free visit indicated in the above points in each department of Vilnius University Museum).